Everyone is welcome and encouraged to join BAHA. People do not need to be a current or former resident of Barnes to belong. We have come a long way in our efforts to make the historical center a reality. The past few years have brought many wonderful happenings to BAHA. These include the opening of our museum with many new displays and events; establishing a new group within BAHA called the Old Duck Hunters Association Circle (ODHA Circle.) This group, with a separate membership, was established to honor and explore Gordon MacQuarrie's life and times. MacQuarrie was a famous writer and personality with many ties to the Barnes area; and the moving of several historic building onto our museum site (The old Pease School will be moved this fall and the Kaufman cabin will be moved in the near future). In 2019, our plans include getting the Silver Beach Elk back to Barnes and displayed in the museum. It has been at UW-Milwaukee since its discovery in 2006. All of this growth was possible only with the help and support of our members and community. We welcome and appreciate your continued help, both financial and volunteer efforts. We have a wide variety of needs and ways to be involved, including becoming an officer or board member; help maintain our physical facilities; greet visitors at the museum; maintain our records and exhibits; write grant proposals; organize and work at fundraising events and much more. Please contact an officer or board member if you can help in any way. Without all of you, we could not have accomplished all that we have done in just these few years.

The monthly BAHA board meetings are usually held on the third Thursday of the month at 9:00 am at the BAHA Museum on the corner of County N and Lake Road in Barnes. All members are encouraged to attend and participate in the discussions. The Annual Meeting is held on the third Thursday in October of each year. We send emails with meeting minutes and updates on events, so please include your email address if you have one.

Current BAHA memberships expire on the 31st of December, 2018. For those who joined after July 1, 2018, your membership expires on the 31st of December 2019.

We have our 501(c) (3) number and are a valid non-profit organization. Any donations made to BAHA are tax deductible.
